Biggest Gas Well Ever Drilled In West Pennsylvania

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Pittsburg, Pa., July 8.—What is claimed to be the biggest gas well ever drilled in Western Pennsylvania, was struck late yesterday on the farm of George Spiegel, four miles from McKeesport. The owners estimate the flow at 45,000,000 feet a day. So far it has not been controlled and the roar can be heard for more than four miles.

A Wireless Station Suspected Of Sending Messages to Submarines Of Germany, Taken Over by U.S. Navy

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, July 8.—The government took over the Sayville, L. I. wireless station, the only remaining privately operated direct means of communication between the United States and Germany.

Secretary Daniels announced that Captain Bullard, in charge of the naval radio had gone to take over the station and would continue its operation with naval forces.

Secretary Daniels issued this statement: "It is understood that the Sayville radio station had made application to the secretary of commerce for a license. The secretary of commerce declined to grant the license and so informed the secretary of the navy, who, after conference, directed Captain Bullard, as the expert of the department to take over and operate the station.

"Lieutenant George R. Clark will be in control of the station. Captain Bullard reached New York this morning and will confer with the owners of the station in all that relates to the details of the operation of the station. Practically the same rules and regulations as are now applicable to Tuckerton, will be put in operation at Sayville."

There will be no change so far as the public is concerned. Messages will be accepted as heretofore, the only difference will be that naval operators instead of commercial employees will man the keys. The charges collected by the navy will be paid to the owning company.

Today's action which was taken under an executive order issued by President Wilson giving the navy authority to take over "one or more" stations, was deemed necessary because of alleged violations of neutrality by the company's operators. It has been charged that when the navy censors had left the wireless room for a minute or two, unauthorized messages had been sent and that only by a difficult and trying supervision could neutrality be strictly preserved.

The wireless station at Tuckerton, N. J., was taken over last September by the government. Both stations now are able to communicate directly with Germany, but there has been from the start a restriction prohibiting the sending of cipher messages unless code books were deposited with the naval censors. The same rule will be continued.

Originally, the object of the censorship was to prevent communication with belligerent ships at sea because it was held that such communication was a violation of the principle of international law which forbids the use of neutral territory as a base of military operations. Since then, however, as there have been practically no German ships on the Atlantic, the censorship has been continued. It is said in naval quarters, because of a conviction that German submarines were able to receive wireless messages sent from Sayville. High naval officers have told Secretary Daniels that while they have no evidence that such communication has been maintained, they could not know definitely whether the station was in touch with German submarines unless the navy's own operators were in charge of the plant. That is understood to be one of the controlling reasons among others for the action of Secretary Daniels today.

Persons are known to have lost their lives in the terrific wind and rainstorm that swept this portion of the Ohio valley here last night. That this total of fatalities will be increased during the next few hours appears certain, as no fewer than ten of those reported as missing are believed to be under the ruins of five buildings that collapsed on Sixth street, west of Mound.

The estimate of property damage increases as the day grew older and a committee of business men has placed their figures at well about the million mark.

Cincinnati, O., July 8.—Twenty persons are known to have lost their lives in the terrific wind and rainstorm that swept this portion of the Ohio valley here last night. That this total of fatalities will be increased during the next few hours appears certain, as no fewer than ten of those reported as missing are believed to be under the ruins of five buildings that collapsed on Sixth street, west of Mound.

The estimate of property damage increases as the day grew older and a committee of business men has placed their figures at well about the million mark.

The list of dead include twelve men of a crew of eighteen on the towboat Convey, which went down during the storm. None of the bodies had been recovered, but those who escaped from the sinking vessel are positive that the twelve men stuck to the boat too long and went down with it.

The storm was equally severe over northern Kentucky and the property damage on that side of the Ohio river will almost equal that suffered by this city. Only one death had been reported from the Kentucky side of the river today.

Reports from Lexington, Ky., say that the storm throughout the central part of the state was the most severe in years, many buildings in the country being leveled while a large number of crops have been ruined. No fatalities have been reported from that section, however.

Reports from the smaller cities of southern Ohio indicate that while the storm was severe in these localities, yet little property damage was done, although crops suffered heavily.

Six of the twelve members of the crew of the towboat Convey reported as missing, were located late today. They had clung to pieces of wreckage from the boat when she went down and floated several miles below the city, landing on the Kentucky side of the river. They remained there all night and walked back to this city today. They reported that the other six men had disappeared when the boat went down and are believed to have been lost.

Cincinnati awoke this morning to find railroad service partially paralyzed, its wire communication with the outside world hampered to such an extent that only press wires were available, its streets littered with fallen trees, signs, roofs of houses and other wreckage that had been tossed there by the wind.

Numerous church spires were blown down and with the wreckage in the streets not removed, street car service is decidedly limited.

From the other side of the Ohio river, in Newport, Covington, Fort Thomas and Fort Mitchell, Ky., come reports of collapsed houses and the street car service to those cities has been entirely suspended.

In the outlying districts of Cincinnati the property damage, which was unknown last night, appears to be heavy, particularly in the residential districts of Avondale and College Hill.

With one exception, that of five buildings at Sixth and Mound streets, no one locally appears to have suffered more than the other. According to reports at a late hour this morning, it was found, however,

Fire Aboard Atlantic Liner In Mid-Ocean; Holt May Have Placed Bomb On Ship

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, July 8.—As if in answer to Frank Holt's last warning that a ship at sea "should sink, God willing, on the seventh," there came last night a wireless message made public today from Captain Claret of the Atlantic Transport line steamer Minnehaha, telling that his ship was afire at sea, 570 miles southeast of Halifax.

The ship had sufficient ammunition aboard, by the line's admission, to sink her, should the flames read it, but whether the blaze in her hold was started by a bomb which Holt had placed there, was a matter of pure conjecture. It was possible that he had done so, an official said, but one man's guess on that point was as good as another's, he added.

Captain Claret's message said that the fire was in No. 3 hold and was not serious. The ammunition aboard the vessel was stored aft, at an appreciable distance from this hold.

No passengers were aboard the Minnehaha. Her crew numbered approximately 100. She was at her plier here about a week, taking on cargo, before she sailed for London last Sunday, July 4. Holt made his attempt on the life of J. P. Morgan at Glen Cove last Saturday, July 2. He would have had ample time, it was pointed out, to have placed a bomb aboard the Minnehaha during the five days preceding this while the vessel was taking on cargo here.

The Minnehaha should reach Halifax, it was said, tomorrow forenoon.

"We do not open and examine every package or parcel taken aboard," an official of the line said. "But we exercise all reasonable precaution to prevent the placing of bombs aboard our ships."

Police authorities continued today their investigations to ascertain whether Holt had planted bombs on board any steamships now on their way across the Atlantic ocean. As a result of wireless warnings, reassuring messages had been received from the captains of the Saxonia and Philadelphia in mid-Atlantic saying (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5.)

17 DEAD IN WRECK OF A TROLLEY CAR

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 8.—Seventeen persons were killed and 50 injured, some probably fatally, as the result of the trolley wreck on the slope of Queenstown Heights last night. Races to catch a steamship for Toronto a special car of the International Railway, loaded with 121 passengers, left the rails on a sharp curve and plunged into gully 15 feet below. The car struck a tree as it toppled over and was nearly cut in two. Of the dead, nine are in the Toronto morgue and eight are in morgues here. All were residents of Toronto.

GERMANY SUSPENDS PASSENGER TRAFFIC.

London, July 8.—The Petrograd correspondent of the Times, says that according to private reports, all passenger traffic on the German railways has been suspended. He says it is believed that large forces are leaving the eastern front for the western theatre with a view of an impending rush on Calais.

Little Damage In Newark But Buckeye Lake Suffered From a Terrific Wind Storm

Newark and vicinity were visited by a terrific wind and rain storm last night and early this morning. It was also general over the county, and but very little damage was done outside of the blowing down of standing wheat and oats and toppling over a few telephone poles.

Residents at Buckeye Lake are the worst sufferers, the storm there causing hundreds of power boats, moored along the north bank, to crash against the concrete retaining walls, completely wrecking quite a few of them. Small boat houses along the north bank were also blown into the lake and quite a few were demolished.

Rain began falling in the city about 9:30 o'clock and continued until about 1 o'clock when the storm broke in all its fury. For an hour or more the wind blew a gale estimated at least fifty miles an hour. Many people felt their houses rock and arose from bed and sat up the remainder of the night. The rain came down in torrents and so fast was its downpour that sewers all over the city were unable to carry it away and as a consequence there were many flooded cellars this morning. Lightning and thunder accompanied the storm and at times the display of electrical activity assumed the proportions of awful grandeur.

There was but little damage reported in the city. A big maple tree at the corner of Fourth and High streets was blown over. Limbs were blown down in various sections as were also small signs.

When John Jones, the colored porter at Teuscher's tonsorial parlor in West Main street opened the place this morning he was astonished to find his big shining stand missing. It stands in front of the shop and John's first thought was that some one of the numerous night prowlers had carried it away. John had visions of taking the bankruptcy law when he happened to cast his eyes up the street and there a half a block away reposed his bread and butter maker. John soon recovered it and the first thing he did was to

FRENCH REPORT THAT SOISSONS WAS BOMBARDED

(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, July 8.—The French war office this afternoon gave out a statement on the progress of hostilities, which read as follows:

"In the region to the north of Arras there was last evening and last night several infantry actions of considerable violence. Between Angres and Souchez, to the north of the road, running from Bethune to Arras, a German attack, preceded by a very heavy bombardment, was completely repulsed. At a point to the north of the railroad station of Souchez, we delivered an attack which made it possible for us to draw nearer to the village. We took possession of a line of German trenches after having put an end to all the defenders thereof by the use of hand-grenades and bombs. After this we advanced beyond these trenches. We made some prisoners and captured a cannon.

"The town of Soissons has been bombarded.

"In the Argonne infantry fighting and cannonading lasted all night. At daybreak in the region of Marie Therese the Germans made an endeavor to come out from their trenches but they were driven back. "Between the Meuse and the Moselle last night saw much fighting. In the forest of Apremont and in the forest of Le Pretre there was cannonading rifle fire, and the throwing of bombs, but with two exceptions there were no infantry engagements.

"These exceptions were between Fey-en-Haye and the forest of Le Pretre where two attacks on the part of the enemy were checked by us."

that not many buildings remain in the city that have not suffered to some extent, damages to them ranging from a total collapse to a broken window pane.

It was ascertained definitely today that a special train on the Pennsylvania, carrying race horses from the recently-ended meeting at Latonia, to the eastern tracks, was wrecked at Terrace Park, a short distance from this city. Nineteen of what are considered the best horses that raced at the Latonia meeting were killed. It was also reported that two caretakers were killed and nineteen others injured, including several jockeys. The large racing stable of E. R. Bradley was on the train.

Among the race horses killed were Little Pather, Fitzgerald, Blood Test, Brick and Norton, Margaret D. Briggs Sister, and White Wolf. Blind Baggage for whom the owner is said to have recently refused an offer of $20,000, and Prince Hermis are missing.

Steamboats on the river were wind-tossed and two of the boats were sunk. The towboat Conroy was sunk just below the Southern railway bridge. The towboat Dick Fulton went down on the Kentucky side, carrying to death its captain.

Five buildings on the north side of Sixth street, near Mount, collapsed, and several persons lost their lives. The structure at 1308 Harriet street was wrecked and a number of persons were injured. The three-story frame building at 2901 Eastern avenue was blown down and at least twelve persons were trapped and one was killed. It will take many hours before the police and coroner can get the correct list of loss of life and the number of injured, while it may be days before an accurate list of missing is obtainable.

BUCKEYE LAKE

Covered With Wreckage, but All Had Left Water Before Storm Broke.

(Special to The Advocate)

Buckeye Lake, July 8.—The heavy wind storm which swept the country Wednesday night, broke at Buckeye Lake about midnight. Lightning and thunder accompanied by a heavy rain, preceded the wind storm but every one had left the water. The wind blew about sixty miles an hour and all the small craft, row boats and launches tied up at the wharfs were torn loose, badly battered and swept away. Nearly all the craft from Stony point to the Buckeye Lake Yacht club were damaged. The lake is now just above the highwater mark, but it is not considered dangerous, and this morning is covered with the wreckage of last night's storm. The buildings at the park suffered no damage.

WASHINGTON C. H.

Swept by Tornado—Buildings Unroofed—Electric Lights Out—Crops Damaged.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington C. H., O., July 8.—A tornado swept this city at 10:45 last night. No lives were lost, but the streets this morning were strewn with debris. Among the larger buildings entirely or partly unroofed were the chair factory, the Cherry hotel, the Dale and Williams blocks and the ice factory. Several residences were blown down in the East End, hundreds of shade and fruit trees were destroyed and much damage of a minor nature was done everywhere. The tornado insurance companies were hard hit.

It was on the farms east and west of the city that the greatest financial loss was sustained. Thousands of acres of corn, oats and wheat look this morning as if they had been run over by a steam roller. A large number of barns, silos and other buildings were blown down or unroofed and miles of fencing and hundreds of big forest trees are lying flat this morning.

In this city, all electric lighting and telephone and telegraph wires were put out of commission and all late trains were held up until this morning.

INDIANA DEAD

Collapse of Buildings Cause Fatalities—Railroad Suffers Landslide—Many Injured.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Indianapolis, Ind., July 8.—The wind and rain storm which swept Central and Southern Indiana last night, caused three fatalities, many injuries and much property and crop damage.

Telephone and telegraph services were interrupted, and many interurban and steam lines suffered from washouts.

Indianapolis, Brazil, Bicknell, Martinsville, Terre Haute, Greencastle, Vincennes and Muncie, felt the storm most. In all these cities an unprecedented seasonal rainfall was reported, accompanied by high winds. Streets were flooded, telephone poles blown down and in many instances, houses wrecked.

At Vincennes, a brewery and a furniture factory collapsed under the gale, and near Vincennes the farm home of Tom Riley was blown down and Riley's daughter killed.

At Greencastle a prisoner in the state penal farm was struck by lightning while walking in a field and killed.

At Martinsville, Floyd Oakes, an electrician, was electrocuted while repairing a broken wire. Bicknell, Ind., reported that houses were unroofed and trees were uprooted there.

At Lafayette, the Monon railroad reported a 1,000 foot landslide over its tracks near Logan.

Rural sections detail damages to the corn crop and to wheat in the shock.

FOUR KILLED

Several Score Injured, and Great Property Damage in Eastern Missouri.

(Associated Press Telegram)
St. Louis, Mo., July 8.—Reports early today from eastern Missouri, which was swept by a tornado late yesterday, show that four persons were killed, several score injured, and three are missing. The damage to buildings and crops is estimated at between $500,000 and $1,000,000.

One of the remarkable features of the tornado was the small number of deaths considering the nature of the property damage. Thus in the city of St. Charles, 163 blocks were practically demolished, but not one life was lost there. Forty of the sixty buildings which formed the town of St. Peter were blown to fragments, but only a few slight injuries were reported from that place. Gilmore, Mo., was nearly wiped out, yet only one man was found dead there.

Between Gilmore and Wentville, a Wabash passenger train, known as the Colorado limited, crossed the path of the storm and the first four coaches in the train were nearly plucked by the wind and laid to one side of the right of way.

Not a person was injured seriously in this accident. Those in the ditched cars ran back to the five passenger coaches left standing on the tracks; these were coupled to the tender and the train proceeded on its journey.

Two miles west of O'Fallon, the wind lifted a buggy off the road, carried it with horse and driver occupants through the air for 200 yards and then hurled it to the ground. Daniel Minor, the driver, escaped with a few bruises, but his wife and one child were killed.

At Dardenne, Mo., the home of Thomas Flaherty was demolished and Mrs. Flaherty and their two children were killed. Fifty other homes in this town were reduced to splinters and piles of brick. At Wentville, Mo., Mrs. Herman O'berland was killed, and at Gilmore the body of Frank Kunkel was found on the railroad station platform after the storm.

St. Charles, after a night of total darkness—the electric light plant having been put out of commission—today looked upon the ruins of the entire central portion of the city, including more than 100 residences.

Search was instituted for the bodies of a woman and two small children, who took refuge in the St. Charles Borromeo Catholic church, a few minutes before it was razed by the wind.

It is supposed they perished. The Borromeo was the oldest church in St. Charles, having been built in 1862, at a cost of $100,000. The property damage in St. Charles alone, it is believed, will aggregate nearly a half million dollars. The damage to wheat in St. Charles and St. Louis counties is estimated at more than $100,000. A dozen towns in these counties were isolated last night, as miles upon miles of telephone and telegraph wires were on the ground, a tangled mass.

Reports today from the storm-swept area of eastern Missouri and western Illinois left the death toll at seven. Three persons were reported missing at St. Charles, Mo., the largest town in the path of Wednesday's tornado, but were found later to be safe.

Dawn disclosed that the damage done at St. Charles had been overestimated. While the tornado swept a section of the city eighteen blocks long by nine blocks wide, the damage, with the exception of the demolition of one church and the partial wrecking of another church, a factory, a hospital and a convent, was confined largely to the unroofing of housing and the uprooting of trees.

Two hundred men were at work today building a temporary bridge for the Wabash railroad near Gilmore, Mo., the railway bridge having been swept away in yesterday's storm.

Wabash trains between Kansas City and St. Louis were routed over the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy line today between Mexico, Mo., and St. Louis. It is thought that the new bridge will be ready for use tomorrow. A summer camp at Mitchell, Ill., 11 miles north of here, was destroyed by the storm. The camp consisted of tents and cottages. No one was hurt there.

The storm in St. Charles county crossed into St. Louis county and demolished barns, scattered wheat shocks and uprooted trees. The town of St. Peters, near St. Charles, was almost demolished, but no one was seriously injured there.

DAYTON DAMAGE

Will Amount to $35,000—Both Bridges to Miamisburg and Other Structures are Gone.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Dayton, O., July 8.—The storm damage in this county will reach about $35,000, it is believed. Miamisburg lost both bridges and more than 100 structures spanning creeks and rivers in the county are gone. The crops have been damaged considerably, according to reports reaching this city. A 25 foot break in the hydraulic at Irwin street flooded the lowlands and the water entered about 300 homes, filling chiefly the cellars. The entire valley while being visited by torrential rains, was not a heavy loser, judging by reports received here.

A mail carrier, undertaking to cross the river at Miamisburg was thrown into the stream and with difficulty rescued.

IRON TRADE REVIEW

Cleveland, O., July 8.—"The Iron Trade Review" today says: "The first half of the year ended with very heavy specifications on contracts for shapes, plates, bars and other finished materials. In many cases requests of consumers to be allowed to specify in excess of contracts were declined by the manufacturers on account of the recent rapid increase in placing of orders, and also because of confidence in the future. Improvement in pig iron is still only moderate, but the volume of new business coming to the mills is very heavy.

"Large orders for machine tools are being placed by companies engaged in the manufacture of munitions. Lathes are being ordered in large quantities for future delivery and about 500 lathes were sold in the east during the past week. The largest buyer of equipment was the New England Westinghouse Co., which placed orders for several hundred machine tools, principally lathes. Another large buyer was the Remington Arms Co. Both concerns are still in the market. The contemplated extensions and improvements to rolling mills in the Pittsburgh district gave machine tool dealers assurance that activity will continue to feature the market for at least several months.

COUNSEL TAKES BECKER APPEAL TO WASHINGTON

(Associated Press Telegram)
Newark, July 8.—Counsel for Charles Becker, were ready to go to Washington today to apply to a justice of the United States supreme court for a writ of error in an effort to save Becker from the electric chair. The reprieve in Becker's case set the date for his execution during the week beginning July 26.

It was stated today that Becker's counsel would base their application on the ground that Becker had been denied the right of executive clemency because of the fact that Governor Whitman had been his prosecutor and could not be unbiased.

LITTLE DAMAGE

buy a lock and chain and says hereafter he will let the storms as he might be compelled to chase down to Zanesville one of these days to recover his property.

The local telephone offices escaped with but slight damages. Only a few phones were burned out and there were scarcely any wires down. This is considered remarkable owing to the severity of the storm. It also proves that the companies erect their lines in a most substantial manner.

The Ohio Electric railway suffered but little inconvenience from the storm. At the east end of the interurban line a high tension wire went down and for a time there was some little danger to early pedestrians but the company soon had a force of men out and the damage was repaired. None of the schedules was affected and all trains were on time.

Pennsylvania passenger train No. 26, east-bound and due in this city at 1:30 this morning did not arrive here until 10 o'clock No. 8, which follows No. 26, had several cars wrecked in the vicinity of Cincinnati. J. L. Worth, local Pennsylvania agent, stated that a number of horses had been reported killed. They were being shipped by express from Latonia to eastern tracks. It was also reported that several of the caretakers were injured. The regular train was annulled and running as second No. 18, reached this city after 12 o'clock this afternoon. A number of racers on train No. 14 from St. Louis due here at 4:10 did not arrive until near noon hour. All trains from the east were on time.

Baltimore and Ohio trains with one exception were all on time. No. 106, due here at 12:50 this morning was three hours late. There was but little damage reported to the track or rolling stock, only a few cars being unroofed.

Frank Warner of this city, a B. & O. freight conductor, had a thrilling experience on the Cincinnati division. He was standing on a box car when the car was unroofed. He was hurled to the ground, but was unhurt. A telegram to this city stated that he alighted on his feet and aside from a severe jolt, suffered no injuries whatever.

Buckeye Lake was the worst sufferer of any section in the county. Capt. Dell Fisher, of the Fisher boat line at the lake, informed an Advocate representative that the storm was terrific at that place and for a time it seemed as if everything would be swept into the lake. At midnight he assembled all his force and by working like trojans they succeeded in pulling a hundred of their heavy boats out of the water onto the banks. This precaution undoubtedly saved them hundreds of dollars.

The report sent out that many yachts and power boats were sunk is enlarged as Captain Fisher stated that while quite a few boats were wrecked by beating against the concrete retaining wall on the north bank, yet many of them were pulled to safety, thus saving them from going to the bottom.

Nearly every private dock on the north side of the lake was torn out bodily, from the waste weir west. The wind came from the southwest and these docks, with many boats still tied to them were blown easterly along the north bank.

In the small pocket between the north bank and Watkins Island, on which the Buckeye Lake Yacht club is located, there were six floating docks with motorboats attached. There were a number of motorboats unattached as well as a large number of rowboats all being churned by the high waves.

At the waste weir half a dozen boats had been jacked up by the waves and thrown up on the concrete and lodged in the flume. There was but little damage at the park, although the wind was blowing at least 60 miles an hour.

NO DAMAGE TO CROPS.
(Special to The Advocate)

Hebron, O., July 8.—A severe storm visited the village and vicinity last night lasting from ten o'clock until long after midnight. A number of telephone poles were blown down by the severe wind which accompanied the rain and numerous telephone wires are also down. Creeks are out of banks and much corn in the low lands is completely destroyed, a great deal of it being washed away by the roots. Wheat and oats are down and farmers will lose thousands of dollars. Two fields of forty-five acres each, west of town are a total loss, the owner stating that he would be able to realize a single bushel from his crop, which he had intended cutting today if the weather had permitted.

NO DAMAGE AT UTICA.
(Special to The Advocate)

Utica, O., July 8.—There was a downpour of rain here nearly all of last night and early this morning it came down in torrents. There was but little wind and the damage will be but slight. Corn fields suffered the most and cannot be worked for days. Telephone lines were not affected and all are working as usual this morning.

CROTON ESCAPES.

(Special to The Advocate)
Croton, O., July 8.—This place was visited by a heavy rain but no damage is reported. There are a few fields of oats and wheat down but the damage will be but slight. Only a little wind accompanied the rain and farmers are the only losers as they will be unable to work their crops for several days.

STORM AT BROWNSVILLE.

(Special to The Advocate)
Brownsville, O., July 8.—This village and vicinity suffered from a heavy downpour of rain early this morning. Corn and other crops in the lowlands are greatly damaged. Much corn has been uprooted and some of the fields are covered. Several creeks overflowed and it will be several days before the crops can be worked.

CROPS DAMAGED.

(Special to The Advocate)
Pataskala, O., July 8.—A heavy rain and windstorm visited this section of the county early this morning. A number of telephone lines are down; in fact, only four farmer lines were working out of the village today, but men are fast repairing them. The crop damage will be great as much oats and wheat is down—some of which can never be harvested. Corn also suffered to a great extent.

STORM WAS LIGHT.

(Special to The Advocate)
Alexandria, O., July 8.—A light storm prevailed at Alexandria and vicinity early today. No damage has been reported in this vicinity on account of wind or water. Quite a little rain fell intermittently throughout the night, but not enough to damage the crops.

FIRE

that those steamships had been searched for bombs and nothing found. These were the two vessels mentioned by Holt in his letter to his wife in Dallas when he wrote that one of them should sink on July 7.

Further inquiry was conducted by the police today to discover what had become of the 60 pounds of dynamite missing from Holt's store of explosives hidden here. Although it appeared that Holt had bought 40 per cent dynamite, that found in his trunk was the 60 per cent kind. This suggested a possibility that all his explosives had not been found. Thus far the police authorities have not been able to discover that Holt had any accomplices in the making or placing of his bombs. Police Commissioner Woods said the indications were that Holt had worked alone.

Arrangements had been made to hold an inquest on Holt's suicide today. His identification as Erich Muenter, indicted in Cambridge, Mass., for the murder of his wife, was regarded by the authorities as complete.

Captain Claret's message read as follows: "Fire caused by explosion. Now under control by suffocation and steam. Much smoke in holds. Deemed it expedient to make for Halifax. Due off Chebucto Head, 9 a. m., Friday. Advise agents."

The message came by way of Cape Race. The Minnehaha's manifest shows that she had aboard 1000 cases of cordite, 28000 cases of loaded shrapnel shells, 1400 cases of trinitite tulnot, 1549 cases of cartridges and 175 cans of safety cartridges.

Among the inflammable materials aboard were 65 packages of petroleum, 2390 barrels of oil and 1941 barrels of wax. The chemicals included 83 barrels of formaldehyde and 95 barrels of boric acid. There were also aboard 230 horses, 223 cases of automobiles, and a large quantity of zinc and copper plates and products.

Whether Frank Holt's threat that on July 7 "a ship would sink, God willing," had anything to do with the explosion, was not made clear in the captain's report.

The line asserted, however, that Captain Claret undoubtedly had caught the wireless warning sent to the liners Saxonia and Philadelphia concerning Holt's threat, and added that it would have been possible for Holt to have managed to get a bomb aboard. The Minnehaha's cargo included several thousand cases of loaded shell, shrapnel shell, tulnot, cartridges and other munitions and approximately 5000 barrels of oil.

MORGAN IS NOW ABLE TO WALK ABOUT HOUSE.

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, July 8.—J. P. Morgan, who was shot by Holt, had so far recovered yesterday as to be able to walk about his house at Glen Cove and his family hoped that today the financier would be able to go outdoors for the first time since he was shot.

BOOSTING FOR LAWN FETE OF BUCKEYE BAND

The Bazaar rate this morning purchased 50 lawn fete tickets of the Buckeye band boys, for the ice cream and cake social which they will hold next Wednesday evening on the lawn of the Sherwood hotel.

Emmet McDaniels, "the man who serves you right," not to be outdone in the purchase of tickets, and both McDaniels' restaurant and the Bazaar were busy giving them away for they did not purchase them to resell to their customers. Mr. McDaniels is one of the original boosters for Newark and is always found at the front whenever he can be of service for the city's betterment.

Twin Tires?—No One's a Goodyear as It Might Be The Other Costs Us $1,635,000 More

This is to prove that you can't judge tires by looks.

Here are two Goodyear tires, seemingly identical. But one is built like many of its rivals. Goodyear extras are omitted. The other has those hidden values. And those unseen extras, on this year's output, will cost us $1,635,000.

This year's betterments alone add to our cost $500,000 yearly. Yet our 1915 price reduction saves our users about five million dollars.

No Price Excuse

This is not a price excuse. Goodyear prices have been fairly racing down. Our late big reduction made the third in two years, totaling 45 per cent. No equal tire can compete.

The Business of Lending Money

Requires long experience. It is, indeed, a business quite as much as any other highly specialized line of effort.

The man who has been EARNING money all his life and has finally saved a few hundred dollars and wishes to invest it, should not confuse his ability to EARN money with EXPERIENCE in lending it. If he loans it himself he will doubtless have to PAY for his experience.

Better by far to entrust the investment of your money to this old and time-tried savings institution. No depositor has ever lost a penny here.

NEW ARCADE IS DISCUSSED IN COUNCIL

PROMOTERS OF IMPROVEMENT
SEEK COUNCIL AID IN AD-VANCING PROJECT

Want It to Extend to Pennsylvania
Station If Railroads Build Union Station There.

As a feature of the city council meeting last night, O. C. Jones brought to the city dads the news of a proposition to construct an Arcade from the public square to the Pennsylvania station, providing the railroads will consent to locate the union station on the site now occupied by the present Pennsylvania station.

The proposed union station is a new feature of the proposed grade crossing elimination (subway) project. The railroads had about agreed to locate the station on the site just south of the B. & O. station.

Mr. Jones visited the railroad officials in Pittsburgh a week ago with the Newark officials and urged the railroad men to place the union station between Second and Third streets.

If his suggestion is adopted, owners of property abutting on the alley leading from the square to the north door of the present Pennsylvania station, will construct an arcade along the entire distance.

The B. & O. company's objection to locating the station on the present Pennsylvania company's site is the difficulty in handling trains on the Chicago division of the road. The Pennsylvania company's objection to the site south of the present B. & O. station is that its long trains would stop with the last coaches east of the creek which is not desirable.

In connection with this project, it developed that there is some misunderstanding between the market people and J. W. Rutledge and Miss Jones in the matter of constructing the proposed arcade from the square to the new market house. Miss Jones and Mr. Rutledge owning property along this alley, want a large arched entrance to the market from their arcade. The market people declare that this is impracticable because of the unhealthy conditions it would produce. Mr. Mitchell, attorney for the market people, suggested that as this was a private matter, that it was out of place to discuss it before council, taking up that body's valuable time. The discussion was dropped.

The committee appointed to inquire into the advisability of placing a fire station in South Newark reported favorably on the subject and while this phase of the question was not discussed, some of the councilmen pointed out that with the completion of the subways and the installation of motor apparatus at headquarters, such a fire station would be an unnecessary expense. It was pointed out that it would cost about $5,000 per year to maintain the station.

The report of the committee was sent to the safety committee with the suggestion that this committee invite the safety director to join in the discussion of the proposal.

All members were present when Council Clerk Woodward called the roll. A number of city officials were present and watched the proceedings during the evening. A dozen or more citizens, interested in questions which came up during the evening, were seated in the chamber. In several instances, citizens were represented by attorneys.

Council Clerk Woodward disposed of the minutes of the last regular and the Monday night adjourned session and quickly went through the routine matters and got down to the real business of the evening.

The street committee asked for more time on the proposition of paving Poplar avenue. The law committee made the same request.

Mayor Bigbee's monthly report showed the following collections:

City Cases.
Fines $ 8.00
Licenses 108.00
Other Collections 59.00
State Cases.
Fines $355.00
Mayor's Fees 54.00

The city engineer reported that the cost of paving North Fifth street would be $591.92. He reported on the estimated cost of the paving of Sixth street: brick $6,961.69; 2.41 per front foot; tar and macadam 55 1-2 cents per front foot; sheet asphalt $1.90 per front foot. Estimate of cost of First street sewer and paving, sewer $2,429.60; paving $5,614.33. A communication regarding retaining walls in Clarendon street was referred to the street committee. Clerk Woodward reported the service of notices for the paving of Charles street.

A petition from property owners in Sixth street between Church and Main, asked for the paving of Sixth street. Phil B. Smythe and others signed it.

Twelfth street property owners asked for a sidewalk from West Main street to the creek. Dr. J. R. Barker and others signed the petition. A communication from Tenny, Morgan and Stasel, submitted a plat of their new addition and asked that it be accepted. It was referred to the street committee.

An ordinance by Mr. Payne making appropriations for the next six months was introduced and passed on suspension of rules. The amounts named in the ordinance are as follows:

The total amount appropriated for all purposes is $151,910.00.

An ordinance by Mr. Adams, authorizing the purchase of land for the extension of Central avenue was introduced. The proposed construction of a dozen houses was offered as a reason for suspending the rules and passing the measure. More than $30,000 will be spent in improvements in the neighborhood before winter sets in.

Mr. Rexroth's ordinance determining to proceed with paving of Charles street was passed on suspension of rules. A resolution by Mr. Rexroth instructing the engineer to prepare plans for the paving of Park avenue was adopted.

Mr. Adams' resolution to pave North Tenth street from Church to Hoover was adopted. Mr. Ashbrook's resolution declaring it necessary to improve First street, Main to Locust, by sewerage and paving was adopted.

A resolution by Adams declaring it necessary to build a sewer in North Fifth street was passed on suspension of rules. A resolution by Messrs. Barber and Adams, declaring it necessary to pave Sixth street, Main to Granville, was given its first reading.

A resolution by Mr. Keyes, to improve Linden avenue, was on its third reading. Discussion of the question of water mains was continued for some time when the resolution was referred to the street committee.

The clerk was instructed to invite F. M. Blair to address council on the subject of resurfacing the city streets.

The committee to select a site for a fire station in South Newark reported that a free site for a fire building had been offered and recommended that a building be constructed. The report was accompanied by a letter from Tenny, Morgan and Stasel, offering the free site. The report and accompanying letter was referred to the safety committee.

The special park committee, reporting on the request of the Trades and Labor Assembly, for use of the outside portion of the court house park for the Labor Day celebration, recommended that such permission be granted. The committee stated that the county commissioners had joined the council committee in the extension of the privileges and that it was agreed that the labor day committee protect the grass with platforms and ropes, to prevent any possible damage to the work done there this spring.

BI-STATE LEAGUE GOES UP; ONE CLUB MAY JOIN THREE-I

Freeport, Ill., July 8.—The refusal of the Racine Club to play in a four-team circuit resulted yesterday in the dissolution of the Bi-State League. Two of the teams quit Monday. The Freeport Association received an offer from the Three-I League, by which Freeport would take the place of Dubuque in the Three-I. The Freeport Association probably will accept or reject the proposition at the Three-I League meeting in Bloomington today.

CINCINNATI TO BE FACTOR THIS SEASON

IN NATIONAL LEAGUE RACE,
THOUGH HERZOG IS NOT YET CLAIMING PENNANT.

Club Starts Second Invasion of East.
Latonia Season Closes—New Motor Speedway.

(C. H. Zuber.)

Cincinnati, O., July 8.—Who can safely figure the odds on this season's race in the National League? Here are the Cincinnati Reds, while holding down last place, putting the rollers under both the Cardinals and the Cubs—two avowed pennant possibilities, and taking the lead over the Boston, world's champions.

What is the answer? It was at this time last year that the Beane, in last place, began the climb that eventually ended in their taking four straight games from the Philadelphia Athletics, entitling them to the distinction of being the best baseball team on the globe. Nobody is claiming that Herzog's men will duplicate the feat of the Boston Braves; but the fact that they are going so well; that their pitching department is looming up as strong as any in the league, and that the men who are supposed to be there with the stick are showing evidences of earning their salaries via their batting eyes, leads to the belief that the Cincinnati bunch will be a factor in the race right down to the finish of the season.

The sale of Catcher Charles Dooin to the New York's was rather a surprise to local followers of the game, although there has been speculation right along as to why the Reds should carry three star catchers, at least one of whom was bound to go stale because of inactivity. Clarke and Wingo are the equal of any two backstops in the business, and in case of emergency the local club can call in Catcher Garry of Minneapolis, on a day's notice. So Dooin really was superfluous; and as he desired to work regularly, the deal for his transfer to New York was arranged. Dooin did wonderful work in developing the Reds' pitching staff, the superb form shown by Dale and Schneider so far this season being due, undoubtedly, to his coaching. Now, however, his task is complete, and he will prove a valuable man to the Giants, where his activities will make for better baseball generally in the National League.

Having finished their busy two days' stay in Chicago, the Reds now are ready for their second invasion of the east, which begins at New York on Thursday. The first campaign of Herzog's men on eastern diamonds wasn't so jolly an affair. On this occasion, however, the team has five dependable pitchers in Dale, Lear, Benton, Schneider and Teney, with Ames in reserve, while all the other departments of the team are working better than at any time this season. The team will play all the eastern teams before returning home; and there is every reason to believe that they will keep up the pace they have been making recently, and will return home the latter part of the month for another series with the easterners, July 25, with the Phillies as their opponents.

Spring racing in Kentucky came to a close on Monday, when the gates of the Latonia track were put up for the summer. The spring season on all the Kentucky tracks was the most successful in many years, indicating returning confidence on the part of the public in the racing game, and an increase in the number of thoroughbreds. The clean racing of the past few years has given a decided impetus to breeding, which has been neglected to a great extent after the closing of the New York tracks. This means that the next two or three years will see the production of more race horses than during the previous decade, with the natural result of increasing the drawing power and general popularity of the "sport of kings."

There no longer exists any doubt as to the early construction of the Cincinnati motor speedway, for which nearly all the capital stock has been subscribed, and on which it is promised that work will begin within a few weeks. Prominent business men interested in the enterprise visited the speed races at Chicago about ten days ago and came away convinced that a similar project would be a big thing for the Queen City. It is promised that the Cincinnati track will be an improvement on both the Indianapolis and Chicago speedways, and that more than one world's record will have the "made-in-Cincinnati" tag on it during the next year or two.

Jack Johnson squelched? Not so you can notice it. The brawny black, evidently desiring of adding a few shekels to the bunch he took out of Havana he cabled across to New York that he is anxious to have another whack at his conqueror, Jess Willard. There are two elements that are prominent in conveying the impression that this proposed match will not take place. One is that Willard declared before his fight with Johnson that if he licked the colored man he would never again enter the ring with an Ethiopian. The other is that there will hardly be an available place to pull off this fight. Johnson is willing to go into the ring with Willard for a side bet of $5000 and the entire gate receipts. Nothing definite has been heard from Willard on the subject.

F. S. SCOTT IS TURNED DOWN BY GOVERNOR

STATE FIRE MARSHAL WILL BE AN ADA GRADUATE FROM DAYTON

"Scotty" Was Original Willis Man in County but Not Strong With Organization.

Governor Frank B. Willis has announced the appointment of Bert B. Buckley of Dayton, O., as state fire marshal to succeed E. F. Deffenbaugh, Democrat, of Lancaster, O.

This action on the part of Governor Willis is a great disappointment to the hundreds of friends of Fletcher S. Scott of this city, who was also a candidate for the position. Mr. Scott was one of the original Willis men, and proved staunch and true to the man from Ada at a time when he was needed. With the organization of the county almost solid for David E. Tod of Youngstown during the primary campaign, Mr. Scott with the assistance of his friends started a boom for the Ada man which resulted in a signal victory. Willis carrying the county (normally Democratic) by several hundred votes. Scott financed the entire campaign. Not only that but the Willis boosters at the state capital expressed over big packages of unstamped Willis literature with the request that Scott send them out to the southern part of the state.

Scott was led to believe by the governor and his friends that he would be taken care of. It is true that the local g. o. p. organization did not endorse Scott until the last moment, and they were led to believe that his chances for the position were excellent. Scott left Sunday for Los Angeles to attend the Grand Lodge of Elks. He made a clean manly fight for the state fire marshalship. He had the endorsement of Newark's best citizens, irrespective of party. He would have made an excellent official as he is endowed with splendid executive ability.

There is such a thing as ingratitude. Willis has taken care of many of his personal friends and is fast filling the offices of state from among the inner circle. As far as Licking county is concerned there has not been even the appointment of a minor position tendered and yet Licking county, nominally Democratic by 2,000 to 2,500, gave Frank Willis a plurality of over a hundred at the November election.

The turn down of Fletcher S. Scott by Governor Willis means a hopeless split in the ranks of the Republican party in Licking county. Scott has hundreds of friends who will resent the governor's action. They believe that he was entitled to consideration and they will remember the treatment accorded him. There is such a thing as the parting of the ways, and there can be no reconciliation of the two Republican factions in Licking county. Governor Willis had it in his power to bring it about but did not embrace the opportunity.

The Auditorium has been thoroughly renovated and cleaned by a force of employees during the past several days for the production of "The Eternal City," which opens a three days' engagement Friday afternoon at 2:15.

The staging of "The Eternal City" is a revelation in photoplays. It occurred abroad, the Famous Players Film company taking an entire cast of all the principals to England and Italy. The costumes are magnificent and were obtained from designs loan-done at a cost of hundreds of thousands of dollars, by the Famous Players Film company. The picture is brought here at great expense, it having shown in all the larger cities of the east at prices far in excess of that charged here, which will be 25 cents for any part of the house.

March 10, 1882, at the Postoffice at Newark, Ohio, under Act of March 6, 1879.

During vacation many cruel and exacting parents require a boy to run down town on an errand before he is turned loose for the day's fun.

Many highbrow lecturers are going to the summer resorts and they are able to pay expenses if they have a sufficient force of pretty girls selling tickets.

If the Kings of Europe are not exposing themselves on the line of fire, it is not because there would be any audible protest from this country if they did.

Having been told by their doctors that they must have more active exercise, many people walk out on the porch and operate a rocking chair
all through the summer evening.

After denouncing the folly of the people who are opposed to preparedness for war, some business men will go down to the office and discharge some militia man because he took a few days for the military maneuvers.

Under a new law you can't give or take a tip in Illinois. But probably wealthy travellers will accidently mislay a good many coins in leaving the table and the waiters will unexpectedly find them.

The Putnam County Sentinel refers to the political mixup at the Ohio State University as criminal politics, and under that head has this ringing editorial: "During six years of Democratic administration the Ohio State University was given a helping hand. During those six years it enjoyed its era of greatest prosperity and advancement. Republicans were left in control. Politics did not enter to disgrace the institution. As soon as the present Republican administration gained control the university is hit its hardest blow. Republicans are quarreling and pulling each other's hair.
They are not satisfied to destroy and wreck what the Democrats have done but they insist on destroying each other as well. Such petty politics and quarrels are criminal."

Agricultural Referendum.

Reports from those who have been circulating petitions for referendum on the agricultural ripper indicate that the required number of signatures will be had on July 13, the date limit. The referendum petitions are meeting with warm response for many reasons. The new law is found to be lamentably weak. It disorgani-zes the well planned agricultural work of the state and restores all the old boards with their separate interests. Without limit to number of days of meeting the expenses of board members for such meetings are not fixed, and indications are that all the old waste and old expense will be restored just as it prevailed before the system was organized when an annual saving of $75,- 000 was effected. The injection of politics into the management of the

IF YOU HAVE TIME

The most precarious livelihood is that earned by the man who lives by his wits.

A man may be said to have a good memory if he can recall the name of the lieutenant-governor of his state.
There are exceptions, however. Who can forget "Jack" Arnold?

The high cost of living prevents a good many men from assuming the burden of supporting two families.

When a man declines to discuss his personal affairs at length the women say he is a "mystery."

Eph Wiley is less optimistic than some. Eph doesn't believe Japan wants the Philippines.

The motives which actuate a man not always are apparent. But when a woman shoots one it is because she loves him.

There still is some criticism of Noah based on the fact that he took two house-flies into the ark.

If a man desires to engage in a harmless form of useless endeavor he might as well breed pouter pigeons.

The man who is looking for trouble seldom requires the services of an optician.

Panama Canal Receipts.
An excess of about $250,000 in

The most widely commented upon feature of Pittsburg's celebration of the Fourth was the comparative ab-

Youth to Middle Age.
The moment when one first feels acutely that he is no longer young he is bound to make one pause in something akin to consternation. For vividness it is like a flash of lightning across a black sky. Life no longer is all before one; even more dreadful, thought, it may be mostly behind! After the first keen realization there follows a bewildered state of mind due to unwillingness —yes, to an actual puzzled inability to accept the truth. With all the agony of the startled call of a child at night the heart cries out, "It cannot be; it is not so." Youth dies hard and fights and struggles in its dying like an imprisoned bird. Others, even those near and dear, are older, even old; we can see that. But how can the stubborn facts be true as to ourselves? Very gradually, little by little, fighting its way inch by inch, the truth prevails and gnaws at the heart—though only intermittently, of course—until time numbs this emotion as it does every other one.

Talk on Thrift

By T. D. Mac Gregor

A THIRTY NEIGHBOR.
"Any woman who, in an emergency, cannot cook and serve a dinner, make a dress or trim a hat, is only half a woman. Economy is no disgrace; any fool can spend money and waste it, but it takes judgment to spend wisely
for value received." —Mrs. Arthur G.
Learned.

The following is not a piece of sumption, but an actual conversation, the names alone being fictitious:
"Dear me! I do feel so happy," said Mrs. Collins as she dropped down into a chair in Mrs. Whitmarsh's parlor. "I've just been down town shopping. I stopped at the bank and deposited my month's savings. I had ten dollars to deposit."

"I declare," exclaimed Mrs. Whitmarsh, "I don't see how you do it.
Your husband doesn't give you a cent more than mine gives me, there aren't any less in your family and you seem to have just as many things as I do. But as for my saving! Why we are always way behind on some bill or other. How in the world do you do it?"

"Well, you see," said Mrs. Collins modestly, "my father and mother taught me to save when I was a little girl. I began then to put my nickels into a little savings bank.
Now whenever I think of a way of saving I always put the difference between what I might have spent and what I do spend right into my bank. If it's only five cents, in it goes, and if it's two dollars I make myself put that in, too."

"But where do you save?" interrupted Mrs. Whitmarsh.
"Oh," answered Mrs. Collins, "I'm always on the watch for chances.
That's part of the secret. Just the other morning it struck me—for the first time, 'strange to say—that breakfast cereal might be cheaper by the half dozen. There is only five cents difference when you buy six boxes, but then you save the bother of ordering the six separately."

"I try to make my household expenses for each month come within a certain limit, too, and if at the end of the month I have spent less than I expected, the sum saved goes into my bank. I buy some cheap cuts of meat; for instance, a brisket of beef to boil and press, or pot roasts. You can make ever so many good soups out of the scraps, too, and John is very fond of soup. I make cream soups out of milk and the water in which vegetables are boiled. I dry vegetables, too. Do you know that dried celery leaves make almost as good a soup as the fresh celery itself?"

"Potatoes and onions and such things I lay in a supply of in the fall.
We have a good vegetable cellar, you know. This last year I put down 40 dozen eggs also. My butter I buy direct from the maker."

Purpose of the Church Is to Develop Christian CharacterBy Rev. C. EDWIN BROWN, Pastor
Plymouth Congregational Church
Spokane, Wash.

IF Jesus was the ideal preacher, then Jesus should be the preacher's ideal. The preacher has no license to pose as political reformer, moving picture censor or police regulator. Unto him has been committed a charge infinitely higher. HIS BUSINESS IS PRE-EMINENTLY TO GET MEN
SAVED AND TO DEVELOP
CHRISTIAN CHARACTER.

If the ministry has fallen into disrepute among young men it is because there is such an abundance of weak samples. This age demands men who regard the dignity of the holy office and who are qualified to bring to it a strong, positive message.

THE MAN WHO FEELS THAT HE MUST APOLOGIZE FOR GOD'S MESSAGE OR WHO HOLDS THE SACRED WORD UP TO RIDICULE OR CONTEMPT HAS NO PLACE IN THE CHURCH OF THE PRESENT.

Systematic Effort Should Be Made to Train Students In Military Art

By Professor W. E. STONE, President Purdue University

IN this institution military training is required by the federal law under which the institution is established.

It seems an entirely logical and desirable procedure that in a country whose defense in case of attack would rest in a volunteer citizen soldiery there should be some systematic effort to train its citizens at least in the elements of military art.

Ordinarily our youth have little or no interest in participation in military drill and discipline. I think this reflects the attitude of the average citizen, but so far as it is possible to train our young men and particularly those who are seeking a higher education IT SERVES TO PRE-PARE A NUCLEUS OF AT LEAST PARTIALLY TRAINED MEN ON WHOM THE COUNTRY COULD CALL IN CASE OF NEED.

Upward of one thousand students of the two lower classes in this institution receive training in the elementary school of the soldier. It is a good thing for them whether they ever participate in war or not, and they constitute without doubt a fine body of trained and educated young men available for leadership at a time of need.

IF THIS KIND OF TRAINING COULD BE MORE GENERAL IN ALL OF
THE HIGHER SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES IT WOULD DO MUCH TO MAKE THE WHOLE SUBJECT MORE POPULAR AND WOULD IMPRESS
UPON THE GENERAL PUBLIC THE VALUE AND NEED OF SUCH PREP-ARATION.

KEEPING YOUR WORD.
"I'll come around Monday," the carpenter said, "the day after Sunday, and build you your shed." He seemed to be talking with scrupulous care, not joshing or mocking or hand-

seemed to be feel-

his words, not recklessly spilling
like like cheap mockingbirds. I said to my auntie,
"The man will be here, to build the cow's slanty, so dry up your tear."

When Monday came booming up out of the muck, no toiler was looming in sight for the work. I watchfully waited, all burdened with care, no workman came, weighted with hammer and square. My cow and bell wether stood out in the rain, and perished together in sorrow and pain. He came with excuses a fortnight too late; his blood and his juice is splashed over the gate. Though skillful a dandy at keeping your word. The pledge that is spoken by loose, careless tongue, the promise that's broken while yet it is young, will hurt like the dickens when you need a boost; like curses and chickens they come home to roost.

HARRY THAW WAS EXAMINED AS A WITNESS

HAD NERVED HIMSELF FOR TRYING ORDEAL OF CROSS-EXAMINATION

By Attorney for State—Evelyn May Face Contempt Proceedings
When She Appears.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, July 8.—Harry K. Thaw had nerved himself for a long and thorough cross-examination by counsel for the state today in his sanity trial. The state had deferred his ordeal in order to first present evidence which would enable them to question Thaw concerning his entire career. Thaw's direct testimony dealt only with events since his escape from the Matteawan asylum.

Mrs. Evelyn Thaw, for whom the court had issued a writ of attachment, may be called to the witness stand tomorrow. Process servers sent by the court were at Chateaugay Lake today to serve the writ and were under instructions to bring her as quickly as possible "to answer for misconduct in not obeying a subpoena directing her to appear before the court yesterday."

Thaw was asked when called to the stand, if he had ever said he had no animosity against William Travers Jerome.

"That statement is absolutely correct," said Thaw.

"When did you first learn that any rich men were interested in keeping you in Matteawan?" he was asked.

"Well, in April—I was examined by alienists in February and March," Thaw began, indicating later he meant April, 1908.

He said that at a habeas corpus hearing at White Plains, in 1912, the question of his sanity there had "been considerable opposition" to him. He had been told, he declared, that Jerome had received "financial support" to keep him in the institution and that newspaper articles had intimated it. He read a statement from a newspaper quoting Jerome as saying "certain people would be only too glad to have this fellow adjudged a lunatic."

Thaw in explaining a letter he wrote while staying in Concord, N. H., asking a Mr. Cooper to use his influence with "State senators and assemblymen not to assist Jerome and his friends," said that he was conducting a publicity campaign in favor of his cause and that the letters were written in furtherance of the campaign. He was questioned about this campaign.

Thaw produced a printed copy of a petition in his favor, which had been signed by 400,000 persons in all parts of the United States.

Society

The decision of the Supreme court in the settlement of the "Old Graveyard" ownership, rendered that location unavailable for uses to which it had heretofore been open. A serious problem was thus presented to the Federation of Women's clubs, who were depending upon it as the site for the approaching Chautauqua already advertised to be held July 30-Aug. 5. The space required makes very few sites at all possible and in any case necessitates a greater distance from the Public Square. This subject was the troubled theme of discussion at the Federation meeting Tuesday afternoon. A committee was appointed to present this difficulty to the Board of Education Tuesday evening and to ask for the use of a portion of the White Athletic Field for Chautauqua week. That the Chautauqua is in itself a great educational movement was the determining factor in obtaining this privilege. The petition was granted upon the understanding with the committee that the field be left without damage, and that funds coming from concessions (if any be granted) shall revert to the upkeep of White Field.

The Federation fosters the interests of the Public Library, works to promote its efficiency and to assist in its maintenance; the money derived from the Chautauqua, except what is necessary for the support and growth of the Federation during the coming year, is to be given the Library.

Tickets are now on sale. One thousand adult and 200 children's tickets have been placed with the local management. Seven hundred and fifty of these adult tickets will be required to cover the guarantee of $1,500, and have been pledged by the various clubs for collection. The local management is anxious to sell the remaining 250 adult and the 200 children's tickets before the opening day of Chautauqua as upon and after that day all profit upon tickets goes to the Redpath agency; also, upon opening day and hereafter during the week, 50c more will be added to the price of adult and 25c to children tickets.

The object of this open letter is to state the above details to the public and to appeal to the citizens of Newark for loyal support and patronage; to ask the patrons of last year's Chautauqua to lighten the burden of the club women who are collecting the guarantee money from the pledge cards; to have the money ready for them when they come, as it is a great labor to collect from practically 700 homes. Tickets may be had from the local management whose headquarters are at the Y. M. C. A., from club women generally and from business agencies throughout the city which will soon be announced. Please do not wait to be solicited. The Chautauqua program this year costs Redpath's 20 per cent more than it did last year, and will be 20 per cent better and more pleasing—if that be possible—than it was last year.

There will be a social gathering at the Plymouth Congregational church on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock to which the members and friends of the Sunday school are invited. Parents are asked to come with their children. A program with games and refreshments is being arranged.

Edwin J. Stedem entertained the directors of the N. A. of S. E. at his home in Hudson avenue last evening. The evening was spent in playing cards. Delicious refreshments were served late in the evening. Those present were T. C. Neal, C. C. Starr, B. B. Pryor, F. W. Spencer, Hershah Stephan, and George Hayden.

Mrs. James Taylor entertained at her home east of the city on Wednesday for Miss Dorothy Swisher. The party went to the pretty country home of Mrs. Taylor in the afternoon and at 6 o'clock dinner was served to the following: Misses Dorothy Swisher, Nellie Morse, Frances Fitzgibbon, Adelia Baker, Thelma Marey, Martha Grace and Virginia Miller, Justina Pearsall, Gladys Lindorf, Helen Vogelmeier, Gwendolyn Davies, Helen Stump and Miss Edmiston of Columbus.

The Daughters of Trinity will entertain with a tea on Friday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Frederick Black in Hudson avenue.

MONTGOMERY—TEAFF.

The wedding of Miss Wilma Teaff daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Teaff of West Main street, and Mr. J. Earl Montgomery took place on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the United Brethren church in East Main street, Rev. A. B. Cox reading the marriage service. They were unattended.

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery will be at home in East Main street. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Montgomery and associated with his father in the East Newark Hardware company.

The Misses Edith and Emma McLean very pleasantly entertained the Willing Workers Embroidery club at their home in London street, Wednesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in sewing and piano solos, after which a delicious luncheon was served to the members and guests. The next meeting will be held July 13 at the home of Miss Helen Miller.

THE SICK

Mrs. Ray Lawson, 310 Ohio street, was removed in the Bradley ambulance Wednesday evening to the City Hospital.

Miss McKinnay of 302 Elmwood avenue is suffering from an attack of erysipelas.

The many friends of Mrs. Walter Kinney, who was operated on Monday at the City Hospital for appendicitis, will be glad to know she is improving nicely. Mrs. Kinney was formerly Miss Beulah Wagner.

Domestic Worry.

Perry C. Walters is in the county jail awaiting the decision of the superintendent of the Insane Asylum of Columbus. He has gone insane from worry over family affairs. He lives in Hebron.

Miss Ora Conard of 142 Hudson avenue, is visiting in Youngstown.

2 AMERICANS ARE KILLED BY GERMAN FIRE

Washington, July 8.—Two Americans, Richard Martin, either of Chelsea, Mass., or Providence, R. I., and John Mahoney, thought to have lived at No. 321 Third avenue, New York, were killed by the shell fire of the German submarine which attacked the British ship Anglo-Californian.

Advices to this effect reached the state department today from Consul General Skinner at London, who transmitted a report from the American consul at Queenstown. Eight members of her crew and her captain were killed and eight were wounded during the attack which occurred July 1. The Anglo-Californian escaped.

MR. BOSSCOWAN'S CONDITION.

Obituary

Dr. A. J. Dispenette.
After gradually failing health which has extended over a period of 15 years. Dr. Andrew Jackson Dispenette, aged 79, one of Kalamazoo's best known older physicians, died at Kalamazoo, Mich., on Monday. He had been a resident of Kalamazoo for the past 30 years and before his enforced retirement was one of the leading physicians in Southwestern Michigan.

Born in Newark, Ohio, May 5, 1836, Dr. Dispenette was educated in the schools of Newark, later graduating from the Bennett Medical College of Chicago. In 1864 he was married to Rebecca Jane Fogel who died in Kalamazoo, May 21, 1910.

He is survived by two sons, Thomas C. of Oklahoma, Owen Dispenette of Kalamazoo; three daughters, Mrs. Frank Whitman of Buchanan, Mrs. Charles Shean and Miss Anna Dispenette, both of Kalamazoo; and one brother, Elliott Dispenette of Newark.

Dr. Dispenette has been a member of the Masonic lodges for the past 40 years. He was a member of the First Presbyterian church.

Funeral services were held from the home of Charles Shean, Wednesday and interment was made in Riverside cemetery.

Miss Bertha Richards.

Miss Bertha Richards, aged 22 years, died this morning at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Richards, in Mary Ann township, death being due to typhoid fever. She is survived by her parents and four sisters and one brother.

The funeral cortege will leave the home Friday morning and services will be held at the Mt. Gilian church, Rev. A. E. Norris officiating. Interment in the Barnes cemetery.

In Memoriam.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dearly beloved sister and daughter, Marie Elizabeth Kirk, who departed this life July 8th, 1914.

"Time rolls on, it will not stay
The grief we feel since that sad day,
With Marie so loving, kind and true Away."

O how sad it was to part with you,
In our home the vacant chair,
Recalls the voice, the smiles and love,
Of our dear Marie that once sat there.
Ever since we saw you last,
Our fond thoughts have not forsaken you.

The flowers we lay upon your grave,
May wither and decay,
But the love we bore for you, dear Marie,
Will never fade away."

Sadly missed by her loving Father, Mother, Sisters and Brothers.

The Courts

In Common Pleas.

In common pleas court, in the case entitled: In the matter of the application of Al. Weathers for a writ of habeas corpus, the court fixed the amount of the bond for the appearance of the defendant at the sum of $500. It is the intention of the defendant to take the case to the court of appeals. He was convicted before a justice of the peace of illegal fishing at Buckeye Lake some months since and was ordered to pay a fine of $50 and the costs of prosecution. The case went to the court of appeals and the judgment of conviction was affirmed. After the defendant had been imprisoned in the county jail for failure to pay the fine and costs, he procured a writ of habeas corpus, claiming that the sentence was illegal. The habeas corpus proceeding was tried in the common pleas court, and a finding entered against Weathers. To reverse this latter finding on the habeas corpus matter, the defendant will go to the court of appeals.

In Squire Jones' Court.

Wednesday at 1 p. m., was the time set for hearing in Justice D. M. Jones' court in the case, State of Ohio vs. H. C. Gebhart, Bernice D. Sigler being the complainant, charging defendant with assault and battery.

H. C. Gebhart accompanied by his Attorney C. W. Montgomery, came into court, the defendant signed a waiver of trial by jury, and pleaded guilty to charges. The court after delivering to him wholesome advice assessed a fine of $10 and the defendant also pay the costs, which he did and was released from custody.

Marriage Licenses.

Earl Montgomery and Wilma Teaff, both of Newark, Rev. A. B. Cox named to officiate.

Case Continued.

The case of Eva Reid et al., vs. Calvin Williams et al. for injunction and damages of $700 was continued in common pleas court.

Administrator Appointed.

Frank O. Spalding was appointed administrator to the estate of Ernest E. Hornaday of Newark. Bond was fixed at $500.

Divorce Petitions.

Sarah H. Evans has filed a petition for divorce against J. H. Evans. She charges gross neglect and wilful absence from home. B. G. Smythe, attorney for plaintiff.

A petition for divorce was filed by Violet E. Conner against James Conner. Mr. Conner charges wilful absence and gross neglect. G. B. Smith, attorney for the plaintiff.

Contracts Awarded.

W. M. McCann was awarded the contracts for the abutments of the Peter Cooper Bridge on the Graham Road in Bowling Green township for the Willard Bridge on the Farmers road in Hanover township, and for Culvert Station 47-33 on the C. and N. Pike.

Granville

[Special to The Advocate]

Granville, July 8.—Granville is always interested in anti-liquor campaigns and doubtless the churches will be crowded next Sunday morning to hear some of the anti-saloon leaders in Ohio speak in the different pulpits. Mr. Wayne B. Wheeler will speak in the Baptist church during the 10 o'clock morning service. Everybody will be welcome.

The Summerland Beach Denison club has been organized for the season with Mr. W. A. Holmes re-elected as president. Grace Sinsbaugh is secretary, and Mr. A. M. Harshbarger is treasurer. All those who are, or who have been students of Denison, and their families, also residents of Granville are eligible to membership upon payment of the dues. The fee, fifty cents for old ones, twenty-five cents for new members, was received. Those who wish board with the club should write to the secretary as soon as possible. There will be a business meeting of the club Thursday at 8 p. m. in the Baptist church.

Rev. Millard Brelsford, pastor of the Baptist church, was a visitor at Summerland Beach yesterday. While there he was a guest at the Charles Watkins cottage. He reports Mr. Watkins as still a "shut in," but progressing by slow stages toward recovery.

No more delightful social affair has been enjoyed this season than was the porch party given by Mrs. C. J. Rose yesterday afternoon at her home in West Elm street, in the interests of Circle 4 of the Women's Missionary Organization. The house is charmingly located high on the eastern slope of Sugar Loaf, where it commands a fine view of the valley to the south. To those interested in autistic work, sewing patchwork to the accomplishment of cheerful conversation, affords as much entertainment as the cleverest game of auction bridge does to its devotees, and is far less tax on the nerves. The supper at half past five, was served on the porch by the daughter of the hostess, Mrs. Theodore Johnson, and Miss Harriet Rogers, recently returned from the south. About twenty women of the Organization were present, including Mrs. C. J. Baldwin, and Miss Davis, one of the faculty at the Mather School in Buford, South Carolina.

Miss Helen Baldwin, who is spending her summer vacation at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Baldwin in West Elm street has charge of the rehearsals for the Social Union Extra to be given on July 21 in Reibel Hall, and everything promises well for a delightful entertainment.

Mrs. Fanny L. Perry of Delaware, O., and her sister, Mrs. Sherman White of Bucyrus, O., have been among Granville visitors this week, guests at the home of their mother, Mrs. John Larimore, in East College street.

Mr. A. L. Grandstaff is enjoying a visit from two of his daughters, Mrs. Joseph Lloyd and little son of Girard, O., and Mrs. McEwan and two children of Pittsburg.

The Ohio Messenger, published in the interests of the State W. C. T. U., contains the following statement concerning one of the workers well known in Granville: "Our State W. C. T. U. feels highly honored that the Chief Executive of Ohio, Governor Willis, has appointed Mrs. Florence D. Richards delegate from Ohio to the National Purity Congress held at San Francisco in July. The Governor also appointed Mrs. Richards to represent the State of Ohio at the Temperance convention which meets at Atlantic City. We hold in high esteem the good judgment of Governor Willis."

News has been received here of the death of Miss Clarice Carroll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carroll, at the family home in Alexandria, on Wednesday afternoon, July 7, at 4:30 o'clock. Miss Carroll, who was graduated from Denison University in 1906, has a large circle of friends in this community, who will sincerely mourn her loss. She was a power in the Licking County Sunday school organization and two years ago was sent as a delegate to the International Sunday school convention in Switzerland. She was president last year of the Shoparson College Alumnae association and vice president of the Denison University Alumni association. She is survived by her parents and her grandfather, Captain Scott of Granville. Funeral services will be held at the home in Alexandria, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

PURITY

James Moats, aged 77 years, 7 months, and 18 days, died June 27, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. T. Harris, after a two weeks' illness with paralysis. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. L. G. Walker, at Eden, Monday afternoon. Interment was made in the adjoining cemetery. He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Della Harris and Mrs. Bertha Taylor of Purity, and Mrs. Zena Mitchell, of Newark. Two sisters also survive. They are Mrs. Hannah Hutchinson and Mrs. Mary A. Vanstrand, both of St. Louisville. Mr. Moats was born and reared in Eden township and all his life was passed there.

Strictly honest in every way, he was trusted and respected by all who knew him.

Calvin McClelland suffered the loss of a valuable mare, Tuesday. Two other horses with whom she was hitched to a binder pulled the machine upon her and severed the tendons in one hind leg above the knee. A veterinarian was called, but the animal had to be shot.

The meeting of the C. E. C. club that was to have been held at the home of Mrs. Susie Keller last Thursday afternoon, was prevented by a storm.

Dancing
Music

In Milady's Boudoir

By Gwen Sears

One has only to watch a group of dancers for a few moments to pick out those who have acquired the Tango face. Many victims of Tancomania are so incapable of relaxing and dance with so much exertion and evident anxiety, that the set facial expression is very noticeable.

Tango dancers, both men and women, are apt to get wrinkles between their eyes and a drawn anxious expression around their mouths, caused by their efforts to acquit themselves creditably on the dancing floor. Wrinkles, like other troubles, seldom come singly and with the wrinkles caused by a stiff unnatural carriage of the body which some dancers affect.

While it may be a little difficult to manage one's feet and one's face at the same time, it is one of the essentials and should be paid all attention to. To expend the physical and nervous energy at the same time must be avoided and unless one can make play of dancing, it is better not to dance. The woman tango tripper is often at a disadvantage because she is not properly dressed for the various motions demanded by the dance. No matter how skimpy the skirt may be at the lower edge, there must be ample room for dipping or the dancer cannot hope to be graceful or to dance with a happy, carefree face.

Tight dancing slippers are another menace to grace. No woman can hope to go through the Tango or any other dance, with a childlike freedom of movement unless she is comfortably shod. The more comfortable the dancer is, the more relaxed and carefree, the less danger of the peril of the Tango face.

Superfluous hair is often the cause of much discomfort, particularly to brunettes, for it is the brunette who is more often the victim of it's growth. There are two kinds of superfluous hair: the soft fine down and the stiff scattered hairs like those in the eyebrows. The latter often appear on the upper lip, chin and sometimes on the cheek near the ear.

There are various methods for removing superfluous hairs but I would advise leaving them alone unless they are very disfiguring. Some women are peculiarly sensitive to any appearance of this sort and fancy disfigurement where none exists. It has been said that a slight downy line on the upper lip of a brunette frequently lends piquancy to the face.

Unhappily the depilatories on the market are not all harmless. Many of them containing arsenic which should never be brought thus in contact with the skin. Superfluous hairs can be rendered much less visible by using peroxide of hydrogen combined with an alkaline solution for toning down the color of the hairs.

For the solution use equal parts of ammonia and absolute alcohol. After washing the superfluous hairs thoroughly with soap and water, apply this persistently for five minutes with a camel's hair brush, then, without drying, apply strong peroxide with another brush for five minutes more. Of course superfluous hairs are often removed by electrolysis, but as the current has to be applied separately to each hair, the expense is very great. And there too is always the danger of getting into the clutches of a beauty doctor who is unscrupulous.

STRAIGHT, LANK HAIR NO LONGER NECESSARY

[Guide to Beauty]

A simple and harmless fluid, hitherto little used for the purpose, has proved so wonderfully effective in quickly turning straight hair beautifully wavy it bids fair to become "all the rage." You may be surprised to learn that this product is nothing more than plain liquid silmerine. More surprised, still, when you see how prettily it dries in the most natural-looking curls, swirls and crinkles you could wish for. It makes a fine dressing for the hair, too, keeping it soft and lustrous. A New ounce of liquid silmerine, which can of course be found in any drugstore, will keep the hair curly for weeks. It is neither sticky nor greasy, but quite pleasant to use. It should be applied at night with a clean tooth brush—a perfectly lovely wave and curliness will come in the morning. Best of all, one who acquires the silmerine habit need never again resort to the barbarous curling iron.

HIGHWATER

Misses Margaret and Gertrude Kennedy of Colton, are visiting at the home of Royal Cubie.

Interesting Children

OLINA AND ROSANNA OWEN
Twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Owen, of Summit Station, O. These little girls will be three years old soon, having been born Sept. 22, 1912.

Your Boys and Girls

In our training of children we are constantly tempted to contradict ourselves. At one time we appeal to their bravery, we solicit courage for doing this or that, for enduring pain or discomfort. Shortly we have occasion to call upon fear of injury, or of disapproval. In one case we exalt courage and laud it as among the highest of virtues and remind the child of all the heroes we have not yet forgotten. But in a few hours we exalt prudence and remind him of the miserable fate of the foolhardy who did not look twice before they leaped. It is not necessary however to suppose that courage and caution exclude each other. Fear as a help in training is a double-edged weapon. We have learned that obedience based on fear will turn into defiance at the critical point. Parents who rule through a sympathetic understanding and firm hold of the child's needs, are far more successful than those who arouse fear.

Fear, in children, arises from the necessity of dealing with the unknown. Children are afraid of the dark because there is no telling what may or may not be in there. A child may be made familiar with the dark, as when someone in whom he has confidence stays with him and keeps his attention, until he is quite at ease among the shadows. The familiar never causes fear.

Caution, on the other hand, arises from judgments based on knowledge. It is a known danger that leads to prudence and care. It steadies the muscles instead of making one tremble, because it is so largely a matter of thought and understanding, rather than a matter of being as is the case with fear. The more a child knows about the things in his little world the more likely he is to be fearless.

New Zealand has an island nearly three miles in circumference which is almost entirely composed of sulphur mixed with asphaltum.

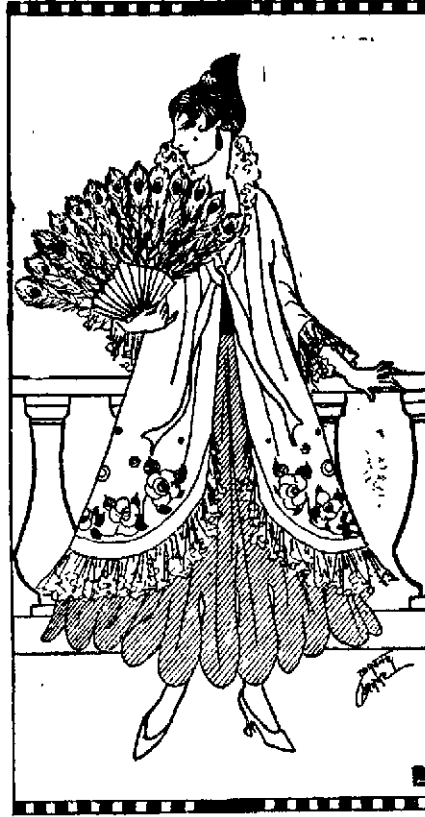

Changes Tears to Joyful Smiles

"Over The Wire"

[By Dorothy Clarke]

Wasn't the polo dinner a success though?—and did you see how amused the Western chap was over the caricatures?—our favors certainly made a bit. . . . The mallet stickpins were awfully attractive—and didn't the table look well?—I think the idea of fixing it as a polo field was rather clever. . . . But you didn't see my new evening wrap. It's just the thing for those hot nights—Doesn't weigh anything. . . . it's pale green chiffon with a brocade border of gold and silver roses, and is trimmed with the most beautiful old Chantilly lace. . . . The loose front with ribbons—ones of gold and one silver. . . . I think our dinner has started a whole lot of fun—they have decided that some player is to give one after each match. The next is to be at the Bromleighs after the Cooperstown game. . . . I wouldn't miss it for worlds. . . . You know how the Bromleighs do things—why, last season

Every Day Etiquette

"I expect to be married next month and should like to know if it is customary for the groom to kiss his bride before the guests," was John's query.

"No, this is no longer the custom," answered his father with a smile.

"Is it proper for a woman to take a man's arm while they are out walking," asked Gladys.

"It is no longer custom for a man and woman to walk along the street arm in arm. However, it is still permissible for a man to offer his arm to a woman companion if there is any great need of such assistance," was her aunt's reply.

SUMMER-SPOTTED SKIN REMOVED BY ABSORPTION

As undue summer exposure usually leaves an undesirable surface of tan, redness or roughness, often freckles, too, the sensible thing to do is to remove such surface. There's nothing better for this than ordinary mercuric ointment, which actually absorbs an unwholesome complexion. The thin layer of surface skin is itself absorbed, gently, gradually, so there's no irritation, no detention indoors. Spread the wax lightly over the entire face at bedtime and take it off in the morning with warm water. If you will get one ounce of mercuric wax at the drugstore, use it for a week or so, you may expect marked improvement daily. When the underlying skin is wholly in view your complexion will be a marvel of spotless purity and beautiful whiteness.

Don't let those summer wrinkles worry you, worry breeds more wrinkles. Banish them by letting the face in a solution of powdered salolite, 1 oz., dissolved in 1/2 pt. witch hazel, rinsed daily for a while this will be found wonderfully effective.

"Coffee Face"

—ever see one?

There are many with the tell-tale signs of indigestion, heart, liver or nerve troubles who don't suspect that coffee is a frequent cause of these and other ills.

Any ailing person can find if coffee has anything to do with his trouble, by a 10-days' change to

—the pure food-drink

It contains no caffeine or tannin (the coffee drugs)—nothing but the nourishing elements of whole wheat, roasted with a little wholesome molasses.

Postum comes in two forms: Postum Cereal—the original form—must be well boiled to bring out the flavour and food value—and Instant Postum—the soluble form—prepared in the cup with hot water instantly!

Grocers everywhere sell both kinds. They are equally delicious, and cost about the same per cup.

Most people can make good use of a strong body, clear brain and steady nerves.

HOW TO CLEAR. AWAY PIMPLES

Bathe your face for several minutes with resitol soap and hot water, then apply a little resitol ointment very gently. Let this stay on ten minutes, and wash off with resitol soap and more hot water, finishing with a dash of cold water to close the pores. Do this once or twice a day, and you will be astonished to find how quickly the healing resitol medication soothes and cleanses the pores, removes pimples and blackheads, and leaves the complexion clear and velvety.

Resitol ointment and resitol soap stop itching instantly and speedily heal skin humors, sores, burns, wounds and chafing. Sold by all druggists.

SOAP FOR BABY'S TENDER SKIN
The regular use of resitol soap is usually enough to prevent those distressing rashes and chafings to which most babies are subject. This is so, first, because resitol soap is absolutely pure and free from harsh alkali, and second, because it contains the resitol medication, on which so many physicians rely for skin troubles.

FOR ITALY GIVEN BY CREW OF TORPEDERO CRUISER,
BEFORE JUMPING OVERBOARD.

Remarkable Exhibition of Courage and Discipline—Most of Crew Saved Before Ship Sunk.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Rome, July 7.—(Via Paris, July 8).—The Italian armored cruiser Amalfi was torpedoed and sunk at dawn this morning by an Austrian submarine while taking part in a reconnaissance in the Upper Adriatic. It was officially announced tonight by the ministry of marine. Most of the members of the crew were saved.

The text of the statement follows:
"A reconnaissance in force was accomplished last night (July 6) in the Upper Adriatic. The Amalfi, which took part in the reconnaissance, was torpedoed at dawn this morning by an Austrian submarine and soon listed heavily to port."

"The commander before giving orders to the crew to jump overboard cried: 'Long live the king! Long live Italy!'"

"The entire crew, drawn up along the stern, echoed the shout, giving a remarkable exhibition of courage and discipline."

"The commander who was the last to leave, slipped overboard shortly before the Amalfi sank. Nearly all the officers and crew were saved."

The Amalfi, which was completed in 1908, had a displacement of 955 tons and was 462 feet long. Her complement in times of peace was 684.

Pola, the Austrian naval stronghold, is situated in the Upper Adriatic at the extremity of the Istria peninsula, about 55 miles southeast of Trieste. It is probable the reconnaissance referred to in the Italian statement was in this section of the Adriatic.

A MERCILESS JUDGE

One Who Knows No Favor.

A merciless judge is Father Time. Before him the weak and the wanting go to the wall. Only the truth can stand. For years the following statement from a Newark resident has withstood this sternest of all tests.

William H. Larason, 434 W. Main street Newark, says: "My back pained me terribly and if I stooped, sharp twinges caught me across my joints and hips. The misery nearly bent me double and I often had to put my hands on my knees in order to bend. Sometimes I felt as if I were going to topple over from dizziness and dark spots floated before my eyes, nearly blinding me. The action of my kidneys was irregular and caused me a lot of trouble. All is different now since I used Doan's Kidney Pills. They made a cure and it is lasting."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Larason had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

If not, it's wicked to neglect illness and means of relief. It's wicked to endure Liver Ills, Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, when one dose of Po-Do-Lax gives relief. Po-Do-Lax is Podophyllin (May Apple), without the gripe. It arouses the Liver, increases the flow of bile. Nature's antiseptic in the Bowels. Your Constipation and other ills disappear overnight because Po-Do-Lax has helped Nature to remove the cause. Get a bottle from your Druggist today. Get rid of your Constipation overnight.

PIGEONS SHOT; BUSINESS MEN DEPLORE FACT

What has become of the flock of pigeons that have long made their home in the downtown section of Newark? These birds had become very tame and were fed daily by a number of business men around the public square.

Today only a very few of the pigeons can be seen in the public square. Within a short time not less than 100 of the birds have been slaughtered.

A man whose business takes him into many of the stores and offices of the downtown district made it a point to speak to ninety people about the pigeons yesterday. He reports that every man, with two exceptions, deplored the killing of the birds and eighty-eight of the ninety interviewed expressed the hope that the remaining birds would be allowed to live.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a hundred years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from one drop to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and cleanses the surface of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

NEW LAW

REGULATING WEIGHTS AND
MEASURES TO BE EXPLAIN-ED IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Of West Virginia—Demand Made for a Law Regulating Itinerary Buses
in That State.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Charleston, W. Va., July 8.—Because of the recent enactment of a law regulating weights and measures in West Virginia, J. H. Nightingale, commissioner of weights and measures, has selected Miss Alice J. McChesney to speak before all teachers' institutes held in the state. She will explain the changes which the law directs in the various tables, in order that the teachers may include them in their instruction when the public schools open in the fall. Miss McChesney also will lecture on the child labor law passed by the late legislature so many changes having been made that it was deemed necessary to specially instruct teachers in its provisions.

Demand for the regulation of jitney buses, of which a great number have appeared in the state, was made today when prominent negro citizens asked the public service commission to formulate rules for their regulation. They complained that drivers discriminated against negroes in not allowing them to ride. Counsel for the Charleston interurban railway and other companies operating trolley lines throughout the state also presented a petition asking that jitney buses be declared common carriers and compelled to file schedules of tariffs in accordance with the commission's rule governing such carriers.

OHIO WHEAT IS SHOWING WELL; CORN IS SLOW

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Columbus, July 8.—Wheat shows well in the state crop report of July 1, issued by the state agricultural department today, but the cool weather has had a depressing effect on corn. The wheat prospect has risen to 102, while corn is down to 87 with the area planted only 98 per cent. of that of last year.

Wheat has been damaged by the joint worm five per cent. and the cut worm did 9 per cent. damage to the corn, while the white grub is responsible for a four per cent. corn damage.

The timothy prospect is also low, due probably to long drought lasting up well into May. Clover has been damaged 6 per cent. by the white grub.

Oats promises an unusual yield, the prospect being now given as 106 of a full average crop. Rye is 97 and barley the same.

The potato crop promises well, both the area and condition being placed now at 98 per cent. The report carries nothing as to fruits.

Reports on tobacco show 85 per cent. of last year's area planted this year. Area planted in potatoes is 88-261 acres. Livestock reports indicate conditions slightly lower than average, while the wool clip this year probably will be 91 percent of that of last year.

OHIO I. O. O. F. IN COLUMBUS JULY 10

Remarkable Experience of F. Gagnon.
Builds up Weight Wonderfully.

"I was all run down to the very bottom," writes F. Gagnon. "I had to quit work I was so weak. Now, thanks to Sargol, I look like a new man. I gained 22 pounds in 23 days." "Sargol has put 10 pounds on me in 14 days," states W. O. Roberts. "It has made me sleep well, enjoy what I eat and enabled me to work with interest and pleasure."

A PLUMP, STRONG, ROBUST BODY

"Before I took Sargol people used to call me 'skinny' but now my name is changed. My whole body is stout. I have gained 15 pounds and am gaining yet. I look like a new man." declared another man who finished the Sargol treatment.

Would you, too, like to quickly put from 10 to 20 lbs. of good, solid, "sticking" flesh, fat and muscular tissue between your skin and bones? Try it.

More than half a million thin men and women have gladly made the test and that Sargol does succeed, does make thin folks fat even where all else has failed, is best proved by the tremendous business we have done. No drastic diet, flesh creams, massage, oils or emulsions, but a simple, harmless home treatment.

SARGOL has earned such a tremendous reputation for itself that W. A. Herman, 33 N. 3d St., and other reliable druggists in the vicinity of Newark will gladly sell it to you under a positive guarantee to refund your money should there be no satisfactory weight increase.

Madam: Feel Fit—Live!!

Get Health. And that clear skin and freshness that Dame Nature intended as yours will follow.

Rid your system of the constipation poisons that are the real cause of sallow complexion, pimples, coated tongue, bad breath, that heavy, depressed feeling, indigestion, lassitude, etc.

Let Santal Laxatives Guard Your Health

Really wonderful little performers. They'll flush out and clear up your system; tone up the blood, make you feel great.

Santal Laxatives contain no calomel, no habit-forming drugs. Just a universally recognized, all-regimental compound put up in easy-to-take tablet form, sugar-coated. If you want to know the ingredients of Santal Laxatives, have your family physician write us for the facts.

Let him tell you just what he thinks of them. That's how much we think of Santal Laxatives.

A trial will give you as good an opinion. Start tonight. Have your druggist send you a box. It costs 10c.

Trial package mailed free if you mention this advertisement when you write. The Santal Laxative Co. (Inc.), 155 Union Street, Bridgeport, Conn.

GERMANY MAKES RUMANIA OFFER FOR NEUTRALITY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Paris, July 7.—The Rome correspondent of the Havas Agency says that the Giornale D'Italia has received the following dispatch from Sofia, Bulgaria:

"A conference was held at Vienna Monday by Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg (German imperial chancellor), Gottlieb von Jagow, (German minister of foreign affairs), Baron Burian (Austrian minister of foreign affairs), Count Stephen Tisza, (the Hungarian premier) and a special Rumanian envoy, Titus Majoresco (Rumanian premier), to discuss the attitude of Rumania and Bulgaria. Rumania is said to have been offered for her neutrality until the end of the war, Bukowina and Bessarabia."

Constipation Causes Most Ills.
Accumulated waste in your thirty feet of bowels causes absorption of poisons, tends to produce levers, upsets digestion. You belch gas, feel stuffy, irritable, almost cranky. It isn't you—it's your condition. Eliminate this poisonous waste by taking one or two Dr. King's New Life Pills tonight. Enjoy a full, free bowel movement in the morning—you feel so grateful. Get an original bottle, containing 36 pills, from your Druggist today for 25c.

GREAT SHOE SALE

Prices Slashed so Deep as to Make Sure of The Quick Sale of

OUR $25,000 STOCK

---OF---

WALK-OVER SHOES

FOR MEN AND WOMEN

To be Sold at Cost, in Most Cases Way Below Cost. We are Overstocked. This is
The Cry all Over the Country Too.

Nowhere have sales been up to the mark. Everywhere shoe men find their capital tied up and their shelves full of Summer Shoes that should have moved before the first of June.

The war in Europe and unsettled business conditions in this country upset the shoe market. People became timid and uneasy. They hung onto their money and made the old shoes last a little longer. The result is that many shoes that should have been sold and that should now be on people's feet are still on the shelves.

It is our policy to carry no stock over from one season to the next. So we have cut prices; cut them broad and deep; every pair of shoes in the store, all the new spring styles included. This sale will surprise you; such low prices for the famous International Walk-Over Shoes. Every pair that goes on sale is a high grade shoe.

This is your chance to lay in a supply of good shoes and count them so much money saved.

WM. A. BARRON'S ENDORSEMENT

Brunswick-Balke Sales Agent Says Nerv-Worth Is Curing His Troubles.

Mr. William A. Barron, sales agent for the Brunswick-Balke Colliery Co., is one of the latest and most enthusiastic Nerv-Worth endorsers, as will be seen from the following letter written by him a short time ago to the Nerv-Worth demonstrator when he was in Huntington.

"I could not sleep before taking Nerv-Worth, nor was my appetite what it ought to have been. I lacked ambition. I got out of bed tired in the morning, having had as much as about three hours of sleep per night. Balance of the time I would be so restless that I'd get up and try to read. I would also frequently take hot baths to relieve the sleepless condition. Now I am taking Nerv-Worth and am much pleased with results. Am satisfied Nerv-Worth will cure me and I shall continue to take it. I cheerfully recommend the remedy."
(Signed) WM. A. BARRON.

Coming from such a source and in so convincing a shape this endorsement will have a marked influence upon the sufferers from nervous ailments. Remember also that Nerv-Worth is sold, recommended and guaranteed by T. J. Evans, druggist, Warden Block, Newark. $1 a bottle.

The shrapnel is really a flying cannon, which shoots its charge while in flight or explodes on contact. Its speed of 509,000 feet a second is produced by a pressure of from 30,000 to 35,000 pounds a square inch from the powder that expels it from the gun.

PRESIDENT CONSIDERING SITUATIONS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Cornish, N. H., July 8.—President Wilson spent this forenoon in the seclusion of his study at Harlakon house, considering the German and Mexican situations. A long dispatch from the state department reviewing the food conditions in Mexico and containing information concerning the political situation in the southern republic was gone over by the president.

While Mr. Wilson is postponing action on the Mexican situation until he can return to the capital, he is expecting that something tending to clarify the situation may come out of the information brought to Washington by the various Mexican leaders. It is known here that some of his closest advisers on Mexican affairs have urged that the Villa faction be allowed to name a provisional president who will be accorded recognition by the United States.

NO COMMENT WILL BE MADE UNTIL A REPLY IS RECEIVED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, July 8.—President Wilson has decided there will be no answer to Ambassador Gerard's inquiry for instructions concerning the tentative draft submitted to him by the German government of its note on submarine warfare, and that no comment will be made by the United States until Germany's formal reply is delivered.

BAD WEATHER DRIVES ANOTHER LEAGUE ON ROCKS

Jackson, Mich., July 8.—The Southern Michigan Baseball League, a class C organization, passed out of existence yesterday, for this year at least, with the announcement by President James Frank that the league had grounded on financial rocks and could not finish its schedule. The decision to disband was the result of reverses due to bad weather conditions.

C. A. C. TO PLAY MENDELS SUNDAY AT WEHRLE PARK

Since the Buckeye League has disbanded, the Newark team of the Capital City league will play every Sunday at Wehrle Park for the rest of the season. Next Sunday the club will play the Mendels, leaders of the Capital City league since Newark defeated the Wilkes Sunday morning. The Mendel club boasts of some old players who have played here before, including Chickinger, Riehl and Gray. The Newark club will present its strongest offense Sunday and will back its determination to win the pennant with the best efforts of its players.

By winning Sunday, the club will be only a few points from first place.

FIND INDICTMENTS FOR VIOLATIONS OF NEUTRALITY OF U. S.

(Associated Press Telegram)
San Francisco, July 8.—More than twenty indictments charging various violations of neutrality were voted here today by the federal grand jury. Names of the persons indicted were withheld pending their arrest. Recruiting for the British army and furnishing supplies to ships of war, are the offenses charged, except in those cases which charge conspiracy to these ends. The indictments based on furnishing supplies to warships have to do with the steamer Sacramento, which sailed from here October 15, 1914, and arrived at Valparaiso, Chile, after her cargo had been taken off by German warships.

Divorce Statistics.
The following statistics were given out by Clerk of Court B. O. Horton as to divorce litigation up to June 30, 1915. There were 99 new cases and only 75 the year before.

There were 68 cases brought up and 40 carried over. Of the 68 cases, 58 were granted and 10 dismissed. There are 61 cases still pending of the 99 cases brought, 76 were filed by the wives and 23 by the husbands, and in the 99 cases there were only eight in which the custody of minor children was involved.

Tacks have been scattered in the streets of jitney bus infested Savannah. They were pushed through sheets of cardboard and arranged business end rampant.

Fewer people under 20 and more people over 45 are now employed in various industries than was the case ten years ago.

SORRELS AND ATHEYS FACE GRAND JURY

Wilbur Sorrel, Myrtle Sorrel, his wife; Chas. Athey and Lydia Athey, his mother, are all held to the grand jury under bond in connection with the shooting of Officer Boscowan, or the many recent burglaries and safe blowing "jobs" here recently. The quartet was arraigned before Mayor Bigbee Wednesday afternoon and in each case the defendant waived the reading of the affidavit, waived examination and asked to be bound over. Attorney Phil B. Smythe appeared in behalf of the defendants. City Solicitor Ralph Norpell was on hand to prosecute the case, in case the defendants wished to stand a hearing.

Wilbur Sorrel was arraigned on a charge of burglarizing the Sutton home, stealing a quantity of silverware and a music box; Athey was charged with burglarizing the plant of the Licking Laundry Company and stealing a quantity of clothing etc. Mrs. Sorrel and Mrs. Athey are charged with receiving stolen property. The bonds for the women were fixed at $200 each. The bonds of Athey and Sorrel were fixed at $1000 each.

The arraignment of Sorrel, Mrs. Athey and Mrs. Sorrel took place at the city prison. Later Mayor Bigbee and attorneys and witnesses repaired to the county jail where the arraignment of Athey took place in the cell corridor. Athey being unable to leave his cot, having been wounded in the gun fight with Officer Boscowan. While numerous affidavits have been filed against Athey and Sorrel charging various offenses for which Sorrel has admitted they were responsible, the police department served only those warrants mentioned and objected to the suggestion of Atty. Smythe that a hearing be granted on the charge of entering the Wyeth-Scott place. It is the desire of the prosecution to await the outcome of the wounded officer before pressing this charge. No affidavit has been filed charging the men under arrest, with the shooting of the officer. Efforts of the department to locate David Steffen, third member of the gang, continue.

JOE JACKSON IS HIT BY A TRUCK IN CLEVELAND

Cleveland, July 8.—Joe Jackson, outfielder for the Cleveland American League baseball team, was struck by an auto truck late yesterday in Parkwood Drive, while he was repairing the engine of his own auto. He was driving with his wife, and was bending over the engine when the truck passed close to the machine, knocking him down.

LIMA PLAYER IS TO GET CHANCE WITH CLEVELAND

Lima, July 8.—Andy McClellan, first baseman of the defunct Lima team of the Buckeye League, will receive a tryout with the Cleveland Indians. McClellan has been ordered to report to Manager Fohl. He was the leading first sacker of the league.

ROCKEFELLER SEVENTY-SIX WAS ON GOLF LINKS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, July 8.—John D. Rockefeller celebrated today the seventy-sixth anniversary of his birth on his estate at Pocantico Hills, Tarrytown, N. Y. He had intended to go to Forest Hills, his home in Cleveland for the anniversary, but changed his plans within a few days. If the weather permitted, Mr. Rockefeller expected to take a round of golf on his links, dine with his children and grandchildren, and spend a quiet day with his family and friends.

this issue paramount in determining the platform and choosing the nominees of such convention.

Dan Morgan Smith, judge advocate of the state of Illinois, who addressed the national convention of the Anti-Saloon League today, summed up in epigrammatic form what he called "The Price of a Drink." He said:

"If the results of drinking were purely personal then the complaint of the 'wets' that the anti-saloon forces are trying to interfere with the personal liberty of drinkers, might carry with it some force, but drink is sold on the installment plan, first payment is made when you get the drink, the others when the drink gets you!"

"The greater part of the payments are made by those who do not drink. The price of a drink ranges from a dime to damnation—the drinker pays the dime and humanity pays the damnation."

"Enforcement of local or state prohibition depends upon the inclination, energy and honesty of local authorities, but you can make prohibition prohibit—any one of you—by a persistent prosecution of those officials who fail to prosecute the violators of the dry law."

"If a judge is too wet to do his duty, make it so hot for him he will dry out."

"It often does more good, in the enforcement of liquor laws, to kick one crooked chief of police out of the police station than to bring many drunks into the police station."

"Referring to employers who have taken a stand against the drinking employee, he said:

"There is room on the water-wagon for the employer as well as for the employee."

Former Governor Malcolm R. Patterson of Tennessee, who was one of the speakers at today's session of the National Anti-Saloon League convention, urged that national prohibition was the proper way to deal with the liquor question.

"The case against the liquor traffic has been made out," he said. "The witnesses, who testify, conform to every legal requirement of credibility; they are intelligent, have the means of information and are willing to speak the truth. They are Science, Experience, and Religion."

"Science, without bias, cold, accurate, calculating, testifies that alcohol is a poison to the body."

"Experience comes, and sets before our view an inept, sullen, moaning, straggling, unhappy procession of victims: so long that it would almost reach across the continent; so sad that it would move a stone to pity. She shows the dry husks of hope, insanity and sudden death, disease, want, waste and bloody crime."

"Religion comes and delivers her testimony. She relates how hearts have been hardened to her eternal truths; she exhibits rents in the garment of justice and bloody smears, nancy fleeing before hate, passion in flame, and love with a broken wing."

"There has been no false testimony delivered; there has been no exaggeration, no contradiction among these witnesses."

Mr. Patterson discussed state rights. The duty of government, he said, was to surround the citizens with good environment, to do no pit falls in his path; to make it easy as possible for the citizen to do right, as hard as possible to do wrong.

"This is the highest attribute of sovereignty. The efforts of our government to suppress the lottery; to stamp out polygamy; to destroy human slavery; to prevent the use of narcotics; to eradicate the disease of cattle; to preserve the public health; to give people pure food, were all in harmony with the purpose of its creation, and to maintain the liquor traffic is a prostitution of its power."

"It is not surprising that the liquor traffic would seize upon states rights for safety. In the past when a town or county proposed to outlaw the saloon, this cunning malefactor sought to slay the local sentiment by telling the people that it would favor state prohibition, when it knew that state action was remote or impossible."

"When the sentiment for state prohibition grew until it threatened to overwhelm the traffic it then sought delay until the government should act—and now when the tide has rushed on until it has reached the walls of the capitol—the traffic would sweep it back with the broom of states rights."

"Stripped of all technicality—the question is a broadly national one—and the government alone can solve it. If a lottery conducted in only one state is a proper subject for national authority—and the sale of narcotics which affect a comparatively small number of people, who will deny the same authority over the liquor traffic?"

"The doctrine of states rights as a defence to human wrong and the violation of the conscience of civilization was buried forever under the apple tree at Appomattox."

In an address on "The Fight for Prohibition in the Pacific Northwest," the Rev. A. W. Leonard of Seattle told the delegates that women had done some of the most remarkable work. He said:

"On November 2, 1914, Oregon went for state-wide Prohibition with

PATRONS ASK FOR ELECTRIC SERVICE ON HOCKING VALLEY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, July 8.—Impatient because the Hocking Valley railway has not resumed electric line service between Jackson and Hamden as ordered last September by the public utilities commission, John E. Hayes and nine other patrons of the line today complained to the commission. They asked that the railway be compelled to install electric service instead of the steam trains it is now running over that branch. An appeal from the utilities commission's order, by the railway is now pending in the supreme court.
